THE CALLING OF THE BUILDERS

A Character-Driven Prestige Drama Series
30 Rock meets Succession — with a soul.

A senior executive inside the world's most powerful media institutions begins to notice something unsettling: today's corporate leaders are unconsciously inheriting the instincts, pressures, and obsessions of the legends who built the industry.

Based on the DeusIM books
Created by Sara Vieira

The future isn't being built — it's being remembered, through the people who think they're in charge.

Deusim

As pressure inside the global media industry intensifies, the line between professional identity and personal awakening begins to blur.

Senior executives across powerful institutions start exhibiting instincts, behaviors, and leadership patterns that feel inherited—echoing the legends who once built the industry itself.

What looks like ambition is something else: a modern apprenticeship.

These leaders are unknowingly shaping the next cultural era. They are The Builders.

History doesn't repeat itself — it recruits.

A LIFETIME IN TRAINING

THE ARCHITECT'S FREQUENCY: THE ALASKAN ROOT

- Olympic-Grade Discipline:
Long before the boardroom, there was the gym.
 - 4x Alaska State Champion
 - 2x USA National Champion. 100+ medals won in silence.
- The Inhabited Icons: Forging a "Source Code" through the spirits of Bruce Lee (efficiency), Kobe Bryant (procedural excellence), and Muhammad Ali (undefeated certainty).
- The Core Principle: Power requires restraint. Force without control collapses. Sara didn't learn strategy from a book; she learned it through a strike.

The body learned first. The system came later.

Deusim

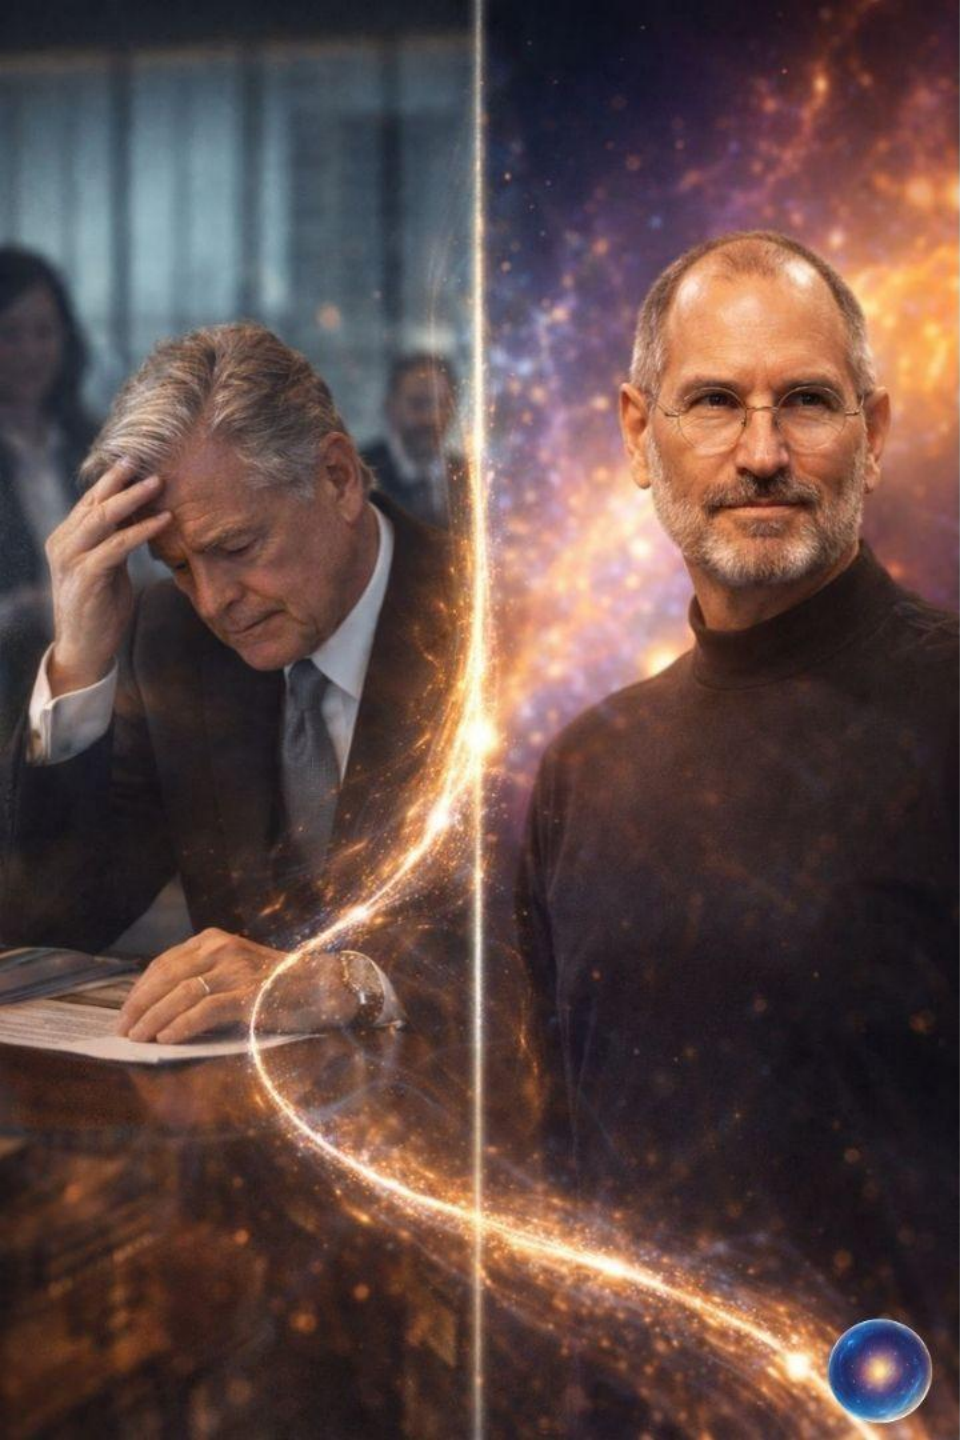

The world of DeusIM BBS treats the 13 major entertainment networks as competing kingdoms.

The Kingdom (Disney / ABC): The Vault of Imagination.

The Peacock (NBCU / CBS): The Dojo of Precision.

The Shield (Fox / Warner / Sony): The Arena of Truth.

Power here isn't ownership. It's alignment.

Deusim

The "Corporate Geniuses" are reincarnated legacies.

- Roger → Visionary Architect
- Lee → Precision in Motion
- Vivi → Voice That Carries Nations
- Raj → War Under Time Pressure

Deusim

THE GLOBAL TRANSMISSION: THE EXPANSION

Sara spent a lifetime inhabiting global frequencies, preparing for a system that doesn't yet exist—but is already forming.

- London: Learning how a heart survives inside a Crown (The Queens & Diana).
- Hawaii: Sovereignty as a presence that cannot be erased (Kamehameha & Lili'uokalani).
- Italy: The afterlife of power—where empires become geometry (Caesar).
- The Collected Result: A leader who became a living system—able to operate inside existing systems without ever belonging to them.

What she gathered wasn't power. It was pattern.

Deusim

In the world of DeusIM, every lead character operates on two simultaneous frequencies.

This is the Double-Inhabitation Model—the engine behind the series' performance style.

The Shell

A high-functioning corporate identity:

CEO. Producer. Strategist.

The external armor required to survive the 13 Pillars.

The Soul Signature

An iconic legacy moving through the individual (Disney, Jobs, Bruce Lee, Tupac, Whitney).

An internal source code shaping instinct, dialogue, and irreversible decisions.

One body. Two frequencies. Total coherence.

Deusim

THE ACTIVE SIGNATURES:

- FOX [The Kingdom]
- Shell: Executive Producer at the centre of a global broadcast empire.
- Soul Signature: The myth-building instinct of Walt Disney and Steve Jobs, fused with the strategic command of Julius Caesar.

FINALE: Fox integrates the Icons, reaching a level where strategy and vision align. Succession becomes stewardship — the preservation of legacy, not ego.

ASTERA

Devsim

THE ACTIVE SIGNATURES:

- VIVI [The Triple Crown Shell]
- Shell: President of NBC.

Soul Signature: The Sovereign Empress—merging the vocal power of Whitney Houston, the cultural force of Tupac Shakur, and Queen Elizabeth II’s unrivaled ability to lead and unify three divisions under one crown.

Vivi’s vocal authority and maternal creative leadership align with the Architect’s vision. She no longer inhabits the icon—she partners with the frequency.

Deusim

THE TOTAL SYSTEM (BBS ARCHIVES)

“The signal did not arrive. It had been training the whole time.”

THE GEOPOLITICAL FREQUENCY MAP

- Every Location is a Server: From the red dirt of Australia’s Aboriginal songlines to the precision of Switzerland and the density of Hong Kong.
- The Blueprint: DEUSIM BBS is the reincarnation of every great system Sara touched. It is not a disruption; it is a synchronization of the world's most powerful frequencies.
- The Mission: What we call Corporate Genius is the Shell. What comes next is the Signal.

Deusim

THE ACTIVE SIGNATURES:

- Raj [The Grid]
- Shell: AFR Creative VP
- Soul Signature: The strategic fire and Warrior-of-Deadlines intensity of Julius Caesar and Tupac Shakur.

Finale: The warrior settles in the 14th Kingdom. Strategic Fire no longer burns the Grid—it illuminates it, making Truth operational.

Deusim

THE ACTIVE SIGNATURES:

- MC [The Gemini Mirror]
- Shell: Creative Director at ABC.
- Soul Signature: The Protective Creator—channeling Whitney Houston’s unconditional emotional power fused with Audrey Hepburn’s grace, elegance, and global humanitarian pull.

Deusim

THE ACTIVE SIGNATURES:

- Penny [The Gemini Shell]
- Shell: Creative Director at NBC.
- Soul Signature: The Gemini Twin presence— a rare duality blending protective, maternal creative leadership with the compassion of Princess Diana and the radiant, elevating aura of Whitney Houston.

Deusim

THE FINALE – THE 14TH KINGDOM

The Resolution: The series moves from the "Invisible Pact" to the "Visible Truth." The conflict of the 13 competing Kingdoms resolves into a 14th Kingdom—a shared frequency of creation.

The Narrative Reset: The series concludes not with corporate victory, but with the Trial of Truth, proving that the soul's frequency is the only asset the Grid cannot own.

THE FINAL SEASON

DEUSIM: BBS

SEEING ISNT BELIEVING

GOODBYE.

Deusim

THE PHILOSOPHY: BELIEVING IS SEEING

The Mantra: "Seeing isn't believing." In the 14th Kingdom (2095), we reverse the lie of the Shell. We no longer wait for proof to act; we broadcast the frequency to create the reality.

The Shift: The old world was built on "Certified" evidence and physical metrics. The Lunar Era is built on Frequency. If you can hold the vibration, the Grid must conform.

The Result: Hope is no longer a "frail summer bird"—it is the literal infrastructure of the new world. We have moved from observing the mirror to becoming the light.

Deusim

THE ACTIVE SIGNATURES:

- John [The Dojo]
- Shell: CBS Executive.
- Soul Signature: The Quiet Lightning—embodying Bruce Lee’s fluid precision, restraint, and explosive clarity.

Deusim

THE ACTIVE SIGNATURES:

- Andrade [The Commander Shell]
- Shell: Vice President at NBC

Soul Signature: The Prismatic Titan—Roman command discipline and Theodore Roosevelt's stoic resilience, concealing a distinctly Scorpio depth: private, loyal, and emotionally formidable.

Densim

The corporate noise cuts out as the 432Hz Frequency Drop hits. Silence. Stillness.

ROGER (Jobs Mode)

“We shouldn’t be fixing the elevator.
We should be re-imagining the ascent.”

JOHN (Bruce Lee Mode)

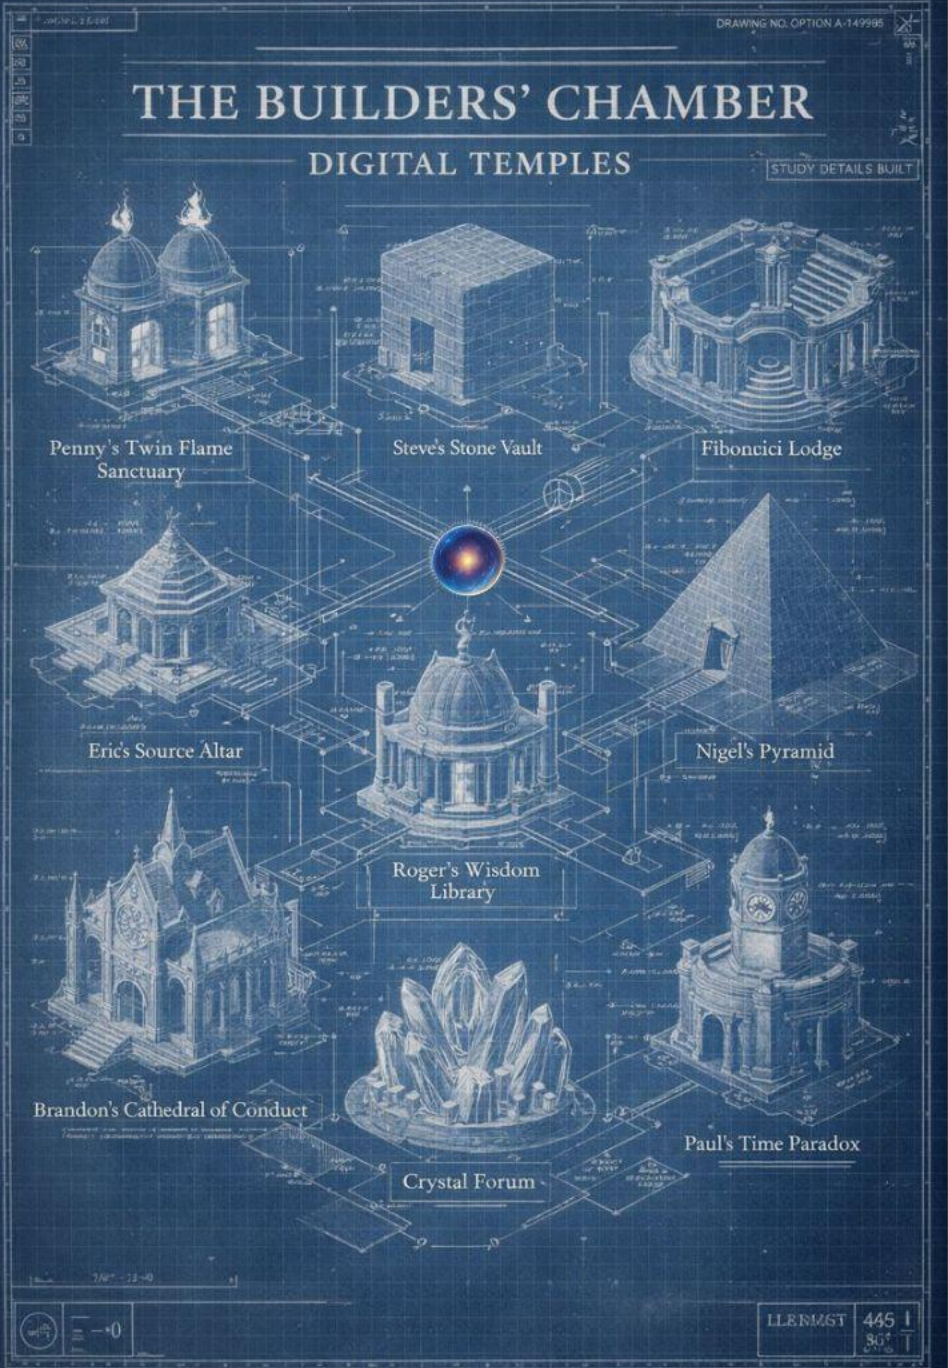

“The elevator isn’t stuck.
Your thinking is.
Be water.”

Deusim

The Trial of Truth:

The Architect is placed on trial by a system that can only measure narrative, not frequency. The Icons appear not as celebrities, but as witnesses from another layer of reality. The system cannot prove guilt — because Truth survives the system. What follows is not acquittal, but recognition.

Deusim

The series follows the 13 Pillars of Recognition.
It tracks a phased awakening across the global Media Grid.

Phase 0 — Awakening: The Whisper

“Gather the Builders.”

Early anomalies. Private recognition. Subtle behavioral shifts.

Phase 1 — Recognition

Identifying the Signatures.

Executives begin noticing inherited instincts shaping decisions.

Phase 2 — Activation

The Builders' Chambers open.

Institutions respond. Power dynamics shift internally.

Phase 3 — Revelation

The Global Sync (Book 3)

What was private becomes visible. The signal goes public.

Recognition precedes change.

Deusim

CORE LAWS OF THE DEUSIM WORLD

(Observed, not invented)

Legacy Is Active

Legacy is not history; it is a living force.

The institutions we inherit were built to carry meaning — not merely power.

Law of Return

Death is not departure — it is redistribution.

Influence moves, adapts, and re-enters the system through new leaders.

Law of Spirit Mirrors

Identity is reflected forward.

We recognize who we are by encountering it in others.

These laws operate whether they are believed or not.

SOVEREIGNTY WITHOUT COLLAPSE

How do you leave the corporate machine without losing your soul?

Season 4 provides the roadmap.

It introduces the Executive Exit — not from power, but from possession.

Ultimate power isn't owning the network — it's owning your frequency within it. We move from the Shell of the industry to the Signal of the self.

This format is designed to work inside existing broadcast structures, not against them.

This is not anti-technology. This is anti-confusion between tools and truth.

ENGAGEMENT WITHOUT EXTRACTION

The modern viewer is system-literate. They know when they are being mined for data.

DeusIM BBS changes the model by operating as a Closed Grid.

We don't ask for likes or votes.

We invite the audience to witness a sovereign signal. The grid is not open for manipulation — it is open for resonance.

The Peacock — prestige chaos, endless notes

The Mouse — control disguised as magic

The Eye — ratings certainty, procedural dominance

AFTER THE NOISE

THE RESOLUTION: WORKING EVER AFTER

The series concludes not with a "happily ever after," but a Working Ever After. The Architect's success is the decoupling of her identity from the corporate record, allowing her to author reality directly from the 14th Kingdom frequency.

THE GEMINI SPLIT (SIGNATURE DEVICE)

Sara operates as a Dual-Frequency Broadcast:

The Strategist — TUPAC:

rhythmic, confrontational, truth-first

The Heart — WHITNEY:

melodic, emotional, legacy-driven

They do not compete. They harmonize.
This split allows the show to speak truth without collapsing into rage or sentimentality.

Industry Reception & Scalability

Executive Feedback

"It felt like reading the unspoken history of my own career... I'd never seen the psychological forces at play so clearly articulated." — Senior Media Executive

Tonal Comparison

"Succession examined money. Mr. Robot examined technology. DeusIM explores the human and emotional forces behind both." — Technology Lead, Silicon Valley

Franchise Scalability

- Phase I (Seasons 1–4): Establishes tone, rules, and institutional credibility.
- Phases II & III (Seasons 5–7): Volumes remain restricted as high-value, gated capital for development partners.

THE POST-FINALE

Deusim

The Hub is the destination we built. But to understand why the Grid opened, we have to look back at the frequency that was already operational before the first stone was laid.

THE PRE-SIGNAL

“The discipline never leaves. It just changes frequency.”

THE FINAL SCENE: SEEING ISN'T BELIEVING

INT. TAEKWONDO GYM — ALASKA — DAWN (FLASHBACK)

Silence. Cold floors. Young SARA (14) bows to the mat. She wipes sweat from her forehead and looks directly into the lens.

Her eyes are not those of a child; they are the eyes of the Architect who just opened the Grid.

LIZ (V.O.)

"For some people, the discipline never leaves. It just changes frequency. The signal did not arrive. It had been training the whole time."

SUPER: SEEING ISN'T BELIEVING.

[CUT TO BLACK]

THE GRID IS OPEN.
